

30 March 1955

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR:

Fulton Lewis in his broadcast over the Mutual Network last night said that President Eisenhower was correct in characterizing as "parochial" Admiral Carney's estimate of military intelligence reports because the President has not only the military but all intelligence reports, including those of the Central Intelligence Agency.

STAT

STANLEY J. GOGAN